

Technical and Policy Issues Associated with a
U.S. – Russian Agreement on
Non-Strategic Nuclear Weapons

February 25-26, 2013
Washington, DC
CSIS ♦ 1800 K Street, NW

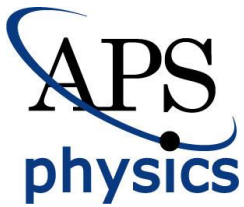

Sponsored by the American Physical Society (APS) &
the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

Supported in part by the Bureau of Arms Control, Verification and Compliance, U.S. Department of State

February 25th, 2013

- 8:00 AM Continental Breakfast & Coffee in Room B1C
- 8:30 AM Introduction with Dr. John Hamre
- 8:45 AM Introduction to Scenario with Dr. Jay Davis
- 9:00 AM Explanation of Workshop Format, Expectations, and Deliverables
- 9:30 AM Break into Working Groups – Group 1 in B1C; Group 2 in 3CR
- 12:00 PM Working Lunch – Reconvene in B1C
- ◆ Keynote Address: The Honorable Rose Gottemoeller,
Acting Under Secretary of State for Arms Control and International Security
 - ◆ Cross Brief: Summary of Results from Morning Sessions
- 1:00 PM First Afternoon Breakout Session
- ◆ Moderated Discussions
- 3:00 PM Working Coffee Break – Reconvene in B1C
- ◆ Cross Brief: Summary of Progress
- 3:30 PM Second Afternoon Breakout Session
- ◆ Moderated Discussions
- 4:30 PM Adjourn

*Cocktails and a group dinner will directly follow at CSIS****

Technical and Policy Issues Associated with a
U.S. – Russian Agreement on
Non-Strategic Nuclear Weapons

February 25-26, 2013
Washington, DC
CSIS ♦ 1800 K Street, NW

Sponsored by the American Physical Society (APS) &
the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

Supported in part by the Bureau of Arms Control, Verification and Compliance, U.S. Department of State

February 26th, 2013

- 8:00 AM Continental Breakfast & Coffee
- 8:15 AM Convene as a “Committee of the Whole”
- ♦ Issues
 - ♦ Questions
 - ♦ Capabilities that merit further study
- 12:00 PM Adjourn